OVERVIEW

Ms. Nadeem focuses her practice in the areas of employment litigation/advice, general liability, and professional liability.

Ms. Nadeem graduated from the University of Minnesota Law School. Prior to law school, she worked for the Minnesota Chapter of the Council on American-Islamic Relations where she gained valuable experience concerning racial and religious discrimination working with state and federal entities. Ms. Nadeem also worked with community leaders and state government officials on issues affecting the Minnesota Muslim community.

During law school, Ms. Nadeem was co-president of the Muslim Law Student Association and participated in National Moot Court and the Housing Law Clinic, where she effectively assisted tenants with housing repair problems. Ms. Nadeem served as an extern for the Honorable Susan Richard Nelson, United States District Judge for the District of Minnesota.
