OVERVIEW

Ms. Curtright focuses her practice in the areas of employment litigation, products liability, and professional and organizational liability.

Prior to joining Bassford Remele, Ms. Curtright served as a law clerk for the Honorable Jamie L. Cork at Minnesota's First Judicial District. Ms. Curtright graduated from Mitchell Hamline School of Law. During law school, she gained experience litigating cases in state court while working with the Ramsey County Public Defender's Office. Ms. Curtright also worked with the law school's Legal Assistance to Minnesota's Prisoner's Clinic, where she assisted with appellate and post-conviction civil litigation claims. Throughout law school, she aided in litigation on family law matters at a boutique family law firm.
